

Satelite radio is a great source of entertainment, news and weather reports for people like my wife and I who travel extensively since I retired. The NAB has no rhyme nor reason to keep XM Radio from brodcasting local weather conditions to aid us in our travels. They have never contributed anything of value to aid in the betterment of the broadcasting industry. XM Radio entertainment does more good in one day than the NAB has done since its existence.